

Lennox Apartment and the Glover Office Structure Change Hands.

ANOTHER $30,000 SALE

Harry G. Laycock Sells Property at 506 Eleventh Street Northwest to Robert H. McNeill.

One of the most important real estate transactions of the past week is the transfer of the Glover building, a sixstory office property at 1419 F street northwest, from Harry Wardman to Richard G. Park, of Philadelphia, in exchange for the Lennox apartments, in L stree between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets northwest. A deed of trust has been placed on record, the transaction having been arranged by Boss & Phelps, real estate brokers.

The apartment house figured in the trade at a valuation of $142,000, and the Glover building at $145,000. The Glover building, erected a number of years ago by Charles C. Glover, has been occupied for some time by one of the government departments. It is of red stone and brick construction. It is said the Lennox, a seven-story structure, with forty apartments, pro-vides an annual income of $12,000. The apartment house is one of the most mod-ern in the city, and is of brick and stone construction, with a frontage of forty-six feet and a depth of 100 feet. Thirty-thousand dollars is said to be the consideration figuring in the sale of a three-story office building at 506 Eleventh street northwest by Harry G. Laycock to Robert H. McNeill. The sale was made subject to a trust of $20,000. Mr. McNeill is considering remodeling the
